Re: Letter of Appreciation

Gentlemen:

I would like to express my appreciation for a job well done to you and your personnel on your recent completion of a contract at Fort Gordon, Georgia, which consisted of the removal of building debris.

Although I did not have the pleasure of meeting all the personnel you had on the job, I would like to commend your superintendent, Mr. D.J. Inman, for putting forth a maximum effort to complete the contract ahead of schedule.

The spirit displayed by Mr. Inman and his personnel is indicative of the mutual respect and harmony between the personnel is indicative of the mutual respect and harmony between the personnel of Fort Gordon and your company.

Yours very truly,

Massey G. Roberson
